

and Robert P. Rogers, son of Mrs., E. F. Claus, 3025 Hagen Road, Napa.

Capt. Marvin A. Epstein, a specialist in internal medicine who has been doing medical research for the past two years at the Army Chemical Center, Md., will return to private practice in Walnut Creek on June 30. Captain Epstein was resident at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital before entering private practice in Walnut Creek. He was called to service in 1953. The captain and his wife plan to reoccupy their former home at 2932 Eccleston Ave., Walnut Creek.

Dr. Epstein Heads County Heart Group

TR 3C SEP 20 1959

WALNUT CREEK, Sept. 19
—Dr. Marvin A. Epstein, Walnut Creek physician, has been elected president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

Others elected at the organization's annual meeting are Mrs. Harry Freed of Pittsburg, president-elect; Dr. Irving Fine of Pleasant Hill, vice president; Mrs. J. H. Schwarck of Orinda, secretary, and Mrs.
W. B. Marschner of Walnut Creek, treasurer.

Dr. Epstein, succeeds William C. McIntosh of Walnut Creek.

McIntosh presented awards to Mrs. Marschner, Mrs. J. H.
Holm, Mrs. Francis Neff and Mrs. Henley Worthington for completing 1,000 hours of volunteer service for the heart association. Pins for 500 hours service went to Mrs. Robert Clough, Mrs. Douglas Matthey and Mrs. A. A. Franklin.

Heart Assn.

Names Next

Year's Aides

TRD JUL 27 1960
WALNUT CREEK, July 27 —Dr. Marvin A. Epstein, president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association today announced committee appointments for the coming year.

Named to the executive committee are Dr. Peter Kunkel and Dr. Irving Fine both of Pleasant Hill; Mrs. J. H. Schwarck of Orinda; Mrs. W. B. Marschner, Mrs. C. C. Willert and William C. McIntosh, all of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Harold Powell of Lafayette and Dr. James F. Embick and Martin Paley of Richmond.

New finance committee members are Mrs. W. B. Marschner, Robert B. Bartlett, Dr. Frederick Pellegrin all of Walnut Creek and Frederick E. Martin of Richmond.

Members of standing committees appointed are Martin Paley, program; Mrs. C. C. Willert, volunteer; William C. McIntosh, Dr. Charles Hart, Charles Wood, Mrs. C. C. Willert and Dr. Kunkel, membership, and Mrs. Harold Powell, publicity.

Program committee chairmen named are Dr. Kunkel, rehabilitation; Dr. Harold S. Robinson of Walnut Creek, nutrition; Dr. Mary L. Eilert of Walnut Creek, research; Dr. Irving Fine, rheumatic fever and professional services and Robert Bartlett, personnel.

TR D MAY 29 1962

ALAMO MAN HONORED BY HEART ASSN.

WALNUT CREEK — Dr. Marvin Epstein, Alamo, has received a silver medallion from the California Heart Association for outstanding service.

He was cited by the association at its annual meeting in Palo Alto for his work as chairman of a statewide committee studying chapter organization.

Dr. Epstein and Dr. Herbert Packard of Walnut Creek were elected to the Board of Directors of the state association. They are both members of the Contra Costa County Chapter.

County Heart Chief to Lead State Meeting

TR D MAY 12 1965

ALAMO—Dr. Marvin A. Epstein, past president and a director of the Contra Costa chapter, will be chairman of the California Heart Assn. annual meeting Friday through Sunday at the Mark Thomas Inn, Monterey.

A board member of the state association, he will be one of the nine delegates from the local organization attending the meetings.

Delegates to the state association sessions include Dr. Peter Kunkel, Pleasant Hill; Gerald Wells, Lafayette, Dr. Paul Weber, Dr. Irving Fien, Dr. Frederick Pellegrin, Dr. Alfred Peretti, Dr. Malcolm Chase and Dr. Charles Hart, Walnut Creek.

Heart Assn.

Appoints 2

Eastbay Men

Two Contra Costa County physicians have been named to committees on the California Heart Association.

Dr. Paul Weber of Orinda has been appointed to the association's research committee for a second term.

He is president-elect of the county heart association and serves as chairman of the county research committee.

Dr. Marvin Epstein of Alamo will continue as chairman of the state association's annual meeting committee for 1966.

Also on the state group's directorate are Dr. Herbert Packard of Alamo and Dr. Irving Fien of Concord.

Dr. M. A. Epstein APR 13 1967 Chief of Hospital

WALNUT CREEK — The medical staff of John Muir Memorial Hospital has named Dr. Marvin A. Epstein as chief of staff at its annual election meeting.

Dr. Epstein, who will lead activities of the hospital's 230 physicians, will be assisted during his term of office by Dr. Irving Fine, assistant chief of staff, and Dr. Lyle S. Powell, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Epstein succeeds Dr. Roland I. Davies.

JUL 23 1969

Doctor Elected Cardiac Fellow

WALNUT CREEK — Dr. Marvin A. Epstein of Alamo, director of the cardiac care unit at John Muir Memorial Hospital, has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology.

Formerly chief of staff at Muir Hospital, Dr. Epstein has practiced internal medicine in Walnut Creek since 1953, except for two years in the Army Medical Corps.

He also has served as chairman and member of various project committees for the Contra Costa and California Heart Associations.